JACK RAIL RETURNED TO PENITENTIARY

The people of Monett will remember a man who lectured on the streets here several months ago, who claimed that he had been falsely imprisoned in the state penitentiary and had just been released. His name was Jack Rail and he took subscriptions for a book he claimed to have written at 25 cents apiece. The books have never been delivered, however.

Sunday Rail was taken through here by a Springfield officer who was taking him back to the penitentiary. He was convicted of stealing horses after he had made a tour of this section. He was arrested in Oklahoma.
